*If you don't drink, you won't get drunk
Thank you for allowing us to serve!!*

It has come to be as if I am in a boat on the water, afloat, tossing and moving with the waves and the currents, but along comes a spiritual "program" where I jump into the water and hold onto that "log" - or in some cases that bigger boat (Christianity? AA?) where there is seemingly greater safety. But in a while, realizing that just like any other material things it is not "enough," I jump back into the water and swim back to my boat, which is still there bobbing along.

It seems that there are many empty boats like mine out there, but every once in a while there is somebody in their own boat looking satisfied that "this is enough" -- you don't need to "get a bigger boat," just because the sharks seem to be everywhere. But even rarer, this one person has some oars! I ask, where did you get those? He says, "Just look in the bottom of your boat!" & I look, & by golly there they are! They were there all along! And it's not that they can "get me where I want to go;" I quickly learn that they just help with making the journey a little less jostly bon voyage!

Do I have the answer? if someone should ask, I'll just tell them to look in the bottom of their boat for their own oars. For if I give you one of my oars, that won't do either of us much good
"The spiritual life is not a theory. We have to live it." (p. 83, Alcoholics Anonymous)

Step Four

Made a searching and fearless moral inventory of ourselves.

Tradition Four

Each group should be autonomous except in matters affecting other groups or A.A. as a whole.

Concept Four for World Service

At all responsible levels, we ought to maintain a traditional "Right of Participation," allowing a voting representation in reasonable proportion to the responsibility that each must discharge.
